INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Education
Edwards-Knox Central School District
Russell, New York

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Extraclassroom Activity Fund of the Edwards-Knox Central School District, which comprise the statement of assets, liabilities, and fund balance (cash basis) as of June 30, 2017, and the related statement of cash receipts and disbursements (cash basis) for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note A; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the nature of the Fund's records being maintained on the cash basis meaning that revenues (cash receipts) are recorded when received and expenditures (cash disbursements) are recorded when paid, the number of individuals (both faculty and students) involved, the amounts of money changing hands throughout the academic school year, and the numerous opportunities available to perpetrate fraud, we were unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence about the actual cash receipts collected and recorded during the academic school year ending June 30, 2017.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and balance due school district students of the Extraclassroom Activity Fund of the Edwards-Knox Central School District as of June 30, 2017, and its revenues collected and expenses paid for the year then ended in accordance with the cash basis of accounting as described in Note A.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note A of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.
