The annual dues shall be based upon the amount the member board paid in the previous year plus an adjustment limited to 2 percent or the Annual Consumer Price Index (CPI), whichever is less.

Thank you for your continued membership!

Your membership dues includes services such as:

- Access to a team of lobbyists and lawyers
- Expert assistance in areas of data analysis, policy development, public relations and school board governance
- Daily E-Clips with links to timely newspaper articles
- Free webinars and podcasts featuring important school board and school district matters
- On Board Newspaper – a one year subscription for school board members and administrators
- Critical leadership development opportunities, including retreats, workshops and our annual convention at special member rates

LEGAL AUTHORITY FOR EXPENSES

The expenditure of public funds in payment of annual membership dues to the Association has legal basis in Section 1618 of the Education Law. Expenses of school board members and school officials incurred in attending conventions and conferences are authorized under Section 77-b of the General Municipal Law.

The counsel to the New York State Education Department has ruled in Formal Opinion 213 that expenses in connection with membership in the New York State School Boards Association are ordinary contingent expenses and may be paid even through a budget has been defeated by the voters.
